PLAINTIFF'S CIVIL COMPLAINT
CONTRACT

Click Bank,
Defendant.

PLAINTIFF'S CIVIL COMPLAINT

NOW COMES the Plaintiff, Gregory Paul Violette and states as follows:

- On or about, August 29, 2020, I ordered from Click Bank their product Resurge, I ordered three bottles.
- On or about September 3, 2020, I got the three bottles of Resurge from Click Bank. Both Barbara Crawford and I started taking the Resurge on September 3, 2020.
- The Resurge was to help us get better sleep and was to make our needed sleep decrease to about 7 to 8 hours a night and start losing weight.
- Barbara and I used the Resurge from September 3, 2020, until September

18, 2020, taking four pills each, one hour before bedtime. Barbara and I did NOT get less sleep each night, Barbara was still sleeping her 9 to 10 hours a night, my sleep increased from 6 hours to 8 hours a night. Both Barbara and I did NOT notice that we were getting better sleep, NOT TRUE!

- Barbara and I did NOT loss any weight. Our weight stayed about the same, NO decease in our weight.
- Click Bank advertised that Resurge would decrease our needed sleep and that was NOT true.
- Click Bank advertised that Resurge would decrease our weight without dieting or and workout whatsoever, we did NOT loss any weight.
- I have sent back one full bottle of Resurge and one empty bottle and one bottle that was opened and returned. Click Bank has refused to honor their 30-day refund policy.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff prays that the court will award Plaintiff punitive damages and exemplary damages in the amount of $550,000.00 because of Defendant's unfairly dealing with our contract and their false advertising. I also ask the court to award attorney fees and court cost and any other relief that the court deems just.
